

Birches Group LLC Achieves SOC 2 Type 1 Certification for Security, Confidentiality, and Availability

Press Release – September 2024

New York, NY – September 3, 2024 – Birches Group LLC, a leading provider of innovative human resources solutions, is proud to announce its successful certification as a SOC 2 Type 1 organization. This certification, awarded by an independent third-party auditor, underscores Birches Group's commitment to maintaining the highest standards of security, confidentiality, and availability for its clients.

The SOC 2 Type 1 certification is a rigorous evaluation of an organization's systems and processes, ensuring they meet the stringent criteria set forth by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA). This certification specifically covers the trust service categories of security, confidentiality, and availability, demonstrating Birches Group's dedication to protecting client data and ensuring reliable service delivery.

Key Highlights of the Certification:

- Security: Birches Group has implemented robust measures to protect against unauthorized access, ensuring the integrity and confidentiality of client data.
- Confidentiality: The company has established strict protocols to safeguard sensitive information, ensuring it is only accessible to authorized personnel.
- Availability: Birches Group guarantees that its systems are reliable and available to meet the needs of its clients, minimizing downtime and ensuring continuous service.

"We are proud to achieve SOC 2 Type 1 certification, which reflects our firm commitment to data security and operational excellence," said Jeffrey Slater, Birches Group LLC Co-founder & Partner. "This certification is a testament to the hard work and dedication of our team, and it reinforces our promise to provide secure and reliable services to our clients."

Birches Group LLC continues to innovate and enhance its services, ensuring that clients can trust in the security and reliability of their HR solutions. This certification marks a significant milestone in the company's ongoing efforts to uphold the highest standards of data protection and service quality. We want to thank our clients for their continued trust and support in Birches Group.
